Chapter 1 by Mike E.

This story begins with a man sitting at his desk. He rests his hands above the keyboard, poised, for when inspiration strikes him. Looking out the window he sees gulls circling, and a lazy cloud moving across the sky. He takes a sip from his coffee, and leans back in his reclining desk chair. He scans his room, his eyes set upon the posters on his wall, memorials to past successes. "A bump in the night", "Half past three", "The temp", and "For love and valor" all New York Times best sellers, and all so long ago. He set down the coffee cup, and began to write.

Chapter 2 by Ferrett

He goes to a website called "Story Wars", reads a couple of stories and finds one called "A New Story". A voice in his head says "That's what you need, Evan, something new." Fingers begin to hit the keyboard, transforming his thoughts into words, writing a draft for the second chapter of the story.

Chapter 3 by intellikat

The third chapter however... seemed to be taking him months to complete. And it was, in fact, written by another. As if a split personality had entered his body and typed the next chapter for him.

Chapter 4 by Mike E.

Chapter four came out in a haze, the thread of the plot long forgotten he typed just to type. To see how it felt. It had been a long time coming

Chapter 5 was torture. Lots of writer's block. Lots of chaos. He was so determined to finish his story. He was so close to the finish line. He just couldn't give up.

Chapter 6 by Windlion

An adventurer forced open the locked door to his room and pushed inside past the piles of wadded digital paper that had overflowed the trash can.

Coughing at the dust stirred up, the adventurer worked his way to the desk. Success! He had uncovered the remains of the mysterious and elusive Storywars author Mike E!

What timeless words could he append to the story to announce its retrieval from the depths of time?

Of course!
